

JUDEO-CHRISTIAN CIVILIZATION DOES NOT EXIST IN THE WEST

Posted on November 1, 2023 by Alexander Dugin

The escalation of Israel's war with Palestine is certainly consolidating the Islamic world. Conservatives in the West are once again talking about defending "Judeo-Christian civilization in the face of the Muslims"—the radical ideology of Hamas gives them a convenient excuse for this. However, a society of profound atheism, materialism, legalization of all kinds of perversions, which long ago discarded theology and traditional values (and orientations) can be considered neither Christian nor Jewish.

If the West, as it is now, supports Israel, it has done something seriously wrong. After all, if the devil's civilization is on your side, you have done something wrong. There is no such thing as a Judeo-Christian world. It does not make any sense. The Islamic world, on the other hand, does exist, and it still has strong traditions. It is not Judeo-Christians against Muslims, but Muslims against Satanic culture, against Dajjal. Biden's idea to combine the topic of support for Ukraine with support for Israel only emphasizes this: The West is always on the side of those who submit to its hegemony, who serve it. Muslims were not enemies of Ukraine and allies of Russia (with the exception of eschatologically awakened Iran and Syria), and now they will be.

Russia is a pole of the multipolar world.

Islam is the pole of the multipolar world.

Both poles oppose the West's desperate attempts to save unipolarity and its global dominance at any cost—even at the cost of a World War. The Palestinian conflict with Israel was not the front line of the conflict of civilizations. Now it is. Just as the friction between Russia and Ukraine was regional until the West supported the Kiev Nazis. And then the war in Ukraine became the frontline of the global confrontation between multipolarity and unipolarity.

The scale of this confrontation is growing. The situation is becoming more and more sinister. Already billions of people on the planet are convinced that the collective West and its allies are the ultimate evil and the civilization of the Antichrist.

Perhaps only Trump's arrival in the United States or the beginning of a full-fledged civil war there can save the world from the Apocalypse or at least postpone it. Democrats, globalists and neocons are leading humanity straight into the abyss. Which, strictly speaking, and is done demons.

Alexander Dugin is a widely-known and influential Russian philosopher. His most famous work is The Fourth Political Theory (a book banned by major book retailers), in which he proposes a new polity, one that transcends liberal democracy, Marxism and fascism. He has also introduced and developed the idea of Eurasianism, rooted in traditionalism. This article appears through the kind courtesy of Geopolitica.

Featured: Blessed Guillaume de Toulouse Tormented by Demons, by Ambroise Fredeau; painted in 1657.
